6.6. Manage personnel and resources to enhance the quality of working life:

Organizational leaders are responsible for ensuring that a conducive working and business environment is created for fellow employees to enable them delivering their best. The Board Members, Senior Management and Key Managerial Personnel would be responsible for ensuring human dignity of all employees, would encourage and support the professional development of the employees of the Company by providing them all necessary assistance and cooperation, thus enhancing the quality of work.

6.7. Be upright and avoid any inducements:

The Board Members, Senior Management and Key Managerial Personnel shall not, directly or indirectly through their family and other connections, solicit any personal fee, commission or other form of remuneration arising out of transactions involving the Company. This includes gifts or other benefits of significant value, which might be extended at times, to influence business for the organization or awarding a contract to an agency, etc.

6.8. Observe Corporate Discipline:

The flow of communication within the Company is not rigid and people are free to express themselves at all levels. Though there is a free exchange of opinions in the process of arriving at a decision, but after the debate is over and a policy consensus has been established, all are expected to adhere and abide by it, even when in certain instances one may not agree with it individually. In some cases policies act as a guide to action, in others they are designed to put a constraint on action. All must learn to recognize the difference and appreciate why they need to observe them.

6.9. Conduct in a manner that reflects credit to the Company:

All are expected to conduct themselves, both on and off duty, in a manner that reflects credit to the Company. The sum total of their personal attitude and behaviour has a bearing on the standing of Company and the way in which it is perceived within the organization and by the public at large.

6.10. Be accountable to Company's stakeholders:

All of those whom we serve, be it our customers (without whom the Company will not be in business), the shareholders (who have an important stake in its business), the employees (who have a vested interest in making it all happen), the vendors (who support the Company to deliver in time) and the society (to which Company is responsible for its actions) - are stakeholders of the Company. All, therefore, must keep in mind at all times that they are accountable to Company's stakeholders.

6.11. Prevention of insider trading:

The Board Members, Senior Management and Key Managerial Personnel shall comply with the code of internal procedures and conduct for prevention of insider trading in dealing with securities of the Company.

6.12. Identify, mitigate and manage business risks:

It is everybody's responsibility to follow the risk management framework of the Company to identify the business risks that surround function or area of operation of the Company and to assist in the company-wide process of managing such risks, so that Company may achieve its wider business objectives.

6.13. Protect properties of the Company:
